

Position Title: Marriage and Family Therapist, Professional Clinical Counselor, PsyD/PhD (Licensed or Associate)

Founded in 2009, TherapyWorks is a leading counseling practice offering therapy services to children, teens, adults, couples, and families.

Position Summary: As part of a fun, engaging and professional multidisciplinary treatment team, the candidate for this position will provide assessment and counseling services to children, teens, adults, couples and families.

Schedule: 25 to 30 Client Hours Per Week

Total Compensation + Benefit Package: Range from $75,000 to $130,000 annually. Compensation is dependent on client caseload and actual hours worked.

Minimum Qualifications & Experience:

- LMFT, LCSW or PhD (registered associates with over 1500 will be considered)
- Professional and passionate therapist
- Motivated, committed, and energetic team player
- Excellent written and verbal communicator
- Minimum two-year commitment
- Must currently not be working in private practice

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Provide supportive, individualized and confidential therapy to children, teens, adults, couples & families
- Assessment, treatment planning, documentation and termination responsibilities
- Maintain timely and accurate client records and calendar using practice software
- Engage in collaborative coordination of care with clients, parents and support staff as needed, including collateral communication with psychiatrists, teachers, etc.
- Attend weekly team meetings and work as part of a collaborative team
- Maintain all legal and ethical requirements of the profession
- Be flexible and receptive to change as part of an expanding and growing company
- Other duties as determined necessary

Benefits of Employment

- Professional, fun & rewarding workplace experience
- Flexible Scheduling (25 to 30 client hours weekly)
- Health Insurance + Life Insurance Benefit
- Paid Time Off + Bonus Unpaid Time Off
- Paid Sick Leave + Holiday Pay
- Remote Work Monthly Benefit
- Annual Clinical Training + Continuing Education Stipend
- Malpractice Insurance + Workers Compensation
- Clinical Supervision, Consultation w/ Clinical Director
- Dedicated Admin Support and Responsive Leadership
- Company Culture Perks - Monthly Meet-Ups, Appreciation Celebrations & Yearly Retreat
- Convenient and Modern Workspaces
- Strong Referral Network of Motivated Clients
- Limited Meetings or Business Responsibilities
- Opportunities for professional growth and personal impact in a growing company!

Thank you for your interest in working with TherapyWorks!

All applications will be considered. If determined to be a potential candidate, an initial phone interview will be scheduled. If not contacted at this time, your resume will remain on file for future opportunities.

TherapyWorks is an equal opportunity employer, with locations in Los Gatos, Scotts Valley and Santa Cruz. To learn more about us, please visit our website at www.mytherapyworks.com.

This position description intends to provide the general nature and level of work to be performed and is not intended to and may not include all duties and responsibilities.